Full Stack Web Developer

enuygunbakici.com/Endostel Human Resources

12/2022 - 01/2025

Istanbul/Turkey

As a Front-End Developer at enuygunbakici.com, I developed and maintained a high-performance website for the home services industry.

Achievements/Tasks

- As a Front-End Developer at enuygunbakici.com, I developed and maintained a high-performance web portal tailored for the home services industry, featuring over 40 unique modules. These include customizable category modules and direct messaging functionalities, providing a seamless and engaging experience for candidates and clients alike
- Designed the website's user interface to align with modern UX principles, ensuring an intuitive and visually engaging experience. Designed over 130 unique pages and prototypes in Figma, creating cohesive and visually engaging user experiences
- Developed the required APIs for the application using PHP and SQL, structuring database table relationships for optimal performance. Created a RESTful API by cleaning and processing all front-end data with PHP to ensure efficient and accurate data delivery
- Enhanced the Google PageSpeed score across 30+ unique pages, elevating performance from scores in the 50s to 98+, significantly improving user experience and site efficiency
- Implemented SEO-friendly HTML, which increased traffic by 330%
- Used pure CSS, jQuery and PHP to optimize code efficiency and load times. Emphasized clean coding standards, reducing redundancy and improving maintainability

Junior Frontend Developer
